

WEEK AHEAD

Kung fu kings

The Shaolin Warriors return as part of the OzAsia Festival, showcasing their remarkable martial arts skills. The kung fu masters perform at the Festival Theatre, at 7.30pm, on Friday and Saturday. Tickets from $65 through BASS.

Master blaster

German cellist Alban Gerhardt performs Camille Saint-Saen's Cello Concerto No. 1, Brahms' Second Symphony and Percy Grainger's Green Bushes as part of the ASO's Master Series at Adelaide Town Hall at 8pm Friday and 6.30pm Saturday. Tickets from $54.90 through BASS.

Cool Britannia

The Art Gallery of SA is screening British films on Saturdays as part of the Saatchi exhibition. This week's flick, Control, is an exploration of the troubled life and times of Ian Curtis, lead singer of Joy Division. It screens at Radford Auditorium at 2pm. Free with exhibition entry.

Knock on wood

The Northern Turners of Adelaide

Martial artists: The Shaolin Warriors are back present Wood Revisited at the Port Adelaide Community Arts Centre on Saturday. The annual exhibition and sale of fine woodcraft is at 66 Commercial Rd, Port Adelaide, from 11am-4pm.

Big Band double

The City of Holdfast Bay Big Band joins forces with the Lindy Hop Big Band for a cabaret concert on Saturday night. The event is at Gliderol Stadium, Brighton Rd, Glenelg, at 8pm. Tickets are $25 for adults, including supper. Bookings: 8272 4173.